The Bulletin

Norwich, Friday, Aug. 4, 1922.

THE WEATHER.

Winds.
North of Sandy Hook: Gentle variable and weather generally overcast and thick Friday.
Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Moderate variable winds and weather unsettled Friday.

Conditions.
Pressure remained high during Thursday over the upper Mississippi valley and the plain states and northern Pacific coast, relatively low along the Atlantic coast. This distribution has been attended by widely scattered, moderate showers in the eastern and southern states. The weather has become considerably cooler over the plain states and the northern Atlantic region and moderate temperature prevailed throughout the east.

In the Middle Atlantic and New England states, the weather will be partly cloudy with scattered thunder showers Friday and generally fair Saturday, with continued moderate temperature.

The Forecast.
For Southern New England: Local showers Friday; Saturday partly cloudy, moderate temperature.

Observations in Norwich.
The Bulletin's observations show the following changes in temperature and barometric changes Thursday:

TAFTVILLE

Master Alfred Linderson and Miss Francis Linderson of New Bedford, Mass., are the guests of relatives in town.

Master Pinner of North Third avenue is spending a few days with Wilfred Linderson in North Stonington.

Louis Wheeler of Norwich was a business caller in the village on Thursday.

Electric light poles about the village are being moved.

Miss Marian Clarke of New London, who has been spending the past week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Axel L. Abner of North Third avenue, has gone to Norwich to spend the remainder of the summer vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kellner of Rock Street.

Because of the stormy weather Wednesday evening, the twilight game between the Taftville A. A. and the Fanny Corners had to be postponed.

The official announcement that grouse would be plentiful this fall was hailed with delight by local sportsmen. For several months now an increase in the grouse in this village has been noted, the young birds joining the flocks as soon as they were able to fly. To most hunters in the village the grouse is still the king of game birds, and nothing pleases them more than to note this increase in the increase. In the outlying districts the birds may be found close to the houses, and one day this week a local resident while driving his automobile over a country road flushed a flock of about ten, one of which flew directly across the road and was knocked down by the radiator of the machine, but before the driver could stop the car it limped off into the brush, not seriously hurt. No great increase in the number of quail in this region has been noted, but the birds that may be seen along any of the roads in the farming districts are large, and are usually in pairs or flocks. Quite a few quail will run along beside an automobile, or cross the road directly in the path of a car, seeming to take to their wings when they are protected by law.

Raymond Collins, who has been spending a few days at the Penmanah house, has left town.

Joseph Kershaw and Fred Kershaw have vacated their house on South B street.

Conrad Gagnon, No. 204, Union St., has vacated his house on South B street.

President J. O. Toller being in the chair, Charles Barlow of Canterbury was a visitor in town Thursday.

Mrs. Thomas Cowie, who is spending the summer at Ocean Beach, sent a short time this week of her home on South A street.

James Hanlon of Merchants' avenue is enjoying his annual vacation.

John Elder, Edward Kelly, Victor Pentland and Frank Trokman were visitors Thursday in Providence, R. I., where they attended a clam bake. They made the trip in Mr. Elder's car.

Mrs. Agnes Gordon and family of Norwich have taken a house on Norwich avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Arnold have returned to their home in New York after passing some time with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hermann and family of Lisbon.

The funeral of Hattie Holmes, wife of Henry Holmes, who died at her home, 19 Norwich avenue, friends held the place of services. There was a mass of flowers and a large number of friends attending. Burial was in Sacred Heart cemetery. George G. Grant was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

The truck owned by Arthur Desjardis of the Canterbury turnpike came to grief Tuesday evening at Riverdale grove when the steering apparatus went out of order, sending the truck up an embankment, damaging the body and tearing off a wheel. It was necessary to tow the damaged machine to a garage for repairs. On Sunday the truck was disabled by the breaking of a rear axle when Mr. Desjardis was carrying meat and other supplies to Penmanah Heights for use at the picnic given by Council Gagnon, No. 204, Union St., last Saturday.

Miss Fannie Courchin has returned to her home in Boston, Mass., after spending a few days with Miss Mary Murphy of South A street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Starlet have returned from their wedding trip at Nantucket and Revere Beach and are at their home on North B street.

Mrs. Allan Neely of Providence street and her guest, Mrs. Oren Ferguson of Holyoke, Mass., who went to New Bedford, Mass., to attend the Revere-Salter wedding, are remaining in New Bedford until the end of the week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Bribery of Brook avenue.

Mrs. John D. Sharpley and Clayton Sharpley of North Second avenue, who are spending the summer at their cottage at Groton Long Point, have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caldwell of South Swanwick, Mass.

The gutter being laid on Hunter's avenue is rapidly nearing completion, also

REGISTRARS REVISING TOWN VOTING LISTS

The voting lists of the town are being revised by the registrars of voters, Tyler D. Guy and Cornelius J. Downes. The registrars have made an early start on the revision as there is considerable work to be done before the lists will be ready for the fall elections.

In past years the work was comparatively light as there were no women lists. This year, for the first time it will be necessary to revise the women's list as well as the men's list. Where there were previously less than 4,000 voters on the lists there are now well over 5,000.

The revision includes the changes of address for all voters who have moved during the past two years and probably many changes from one district to another.

In the case of the women voters all who have married must register their married name and a copy of each change made necessary through marriage will be made and filed with the town clerk in a book kept for that purpose.

The revised lists will be used at the election in November. The registrars said Thursday that it would be well for every voter to see to it that his or her name appears on the list correctly and that the address is correct. Lists will avoid confusion on election day.

The registrars said they find the new city directory very unsatisfactory as many names are left off, many misspelled and street numbers in many cases are wrong.

APPRAISERS HAVE FILED

INVENTORY OF ESTATE
James R. May and Milton M. Baker, appraisers of the estate of the late Edward T. Brown of New London, have filed a report of the estate with the New London probate court. The appraisal shows a total of $171,524.48. Real estate at $50,000; at 4 Broad street, $5,000; 86-88 Broad street at $5,000; 194 Hempstead street, $10,000; and various equities are disclosed in properties at $28,45 and 48 Crescent street, land on Crescent street, 89 Jefferson avenue, 115, 118, 120, 122 River street, $2,45, 48 and 50 School street, the total appraisal of realty being $44,479.04.

Stocks are appraised at $74,309.25, notes at $31,115.22, bonds $2,502.07, life savings certificates $258.72, life insurance $3,438.17; bank deposits, $3,312.94 and miscellaneous $3.99.

The executors are the Union Bank & Trust Co., George T. Brown and Mrs. Nancy Brown Morgan.

TO SET DATE FOR

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION
Chairman J. Henry Roraback of the republican state central committee has issued a call for a meeting of the committee to be held at Hartford, Tuesday afternoon. The purpose of the meeting is to determine the time and place for the state convention which will nominate the republican ticket, and to fix the date of the caucus or primaries for the election of delegates to the state, congressional, county and district conventions.

The time of the caucuses will depend largely on the date selected for the state convention. The party rules provide that they be held at least ten days prior to the state convention and that the date must be set at least fifteen days in advance. Therefore, the caucuses will necessarily be held sometime after August 23 and the state convention at a date subsequent to September 3. Labor Day falls on September 4. The republican state convention has frequently been held on the Wednesday and Thursday following Labor Day.

Five sets of delegates will be elected on the uniform caucus date this year, owing to the fact that a sheriff is to be elected in each county in the November election and a judge in each judicial district, in addition to the state officials, congressmen and state senators. The last election for sheriffs was in 1918, the term for the offices being four years each.

West side of the street being finished and the east side, near the Sacred Heart church, is under way.

A new man who had included in a little too much home-connected liquor made a disturbance on South B street at a late hour of the night and came to the attention of Constable Napoleon Dineo, who, with the help of residents on the street, subdued him after a struggle, after which the man made his way home and went peacefully to bed.

Work has been going on these past few weeks on the new road from the railroad grounds in preparation for the battle between the Taftville A. A. and the All-American of Hartford. Poles have now been set up on the South B street side of the grounds, and burial is stretched on them at each game. This is a step taken by the association not only to compel people who want to watch the game to pay admission but to be fair to those who were willing to pay to watch the game. For several games now, burial has been stretched along the east side of the grounds.

Frank Pearson of Vernon, Conn., was a recent visitor in town, taking charge of the furniture and vacating the apartment formerly occupied by Miss Sarah Pearson on North Third avenue.

Matthew Rodman of Boston, Mass., was a business caller in the village Thursday.

Miss Annie Wolenda has resigned her position with the Penmanah company.

Walter Cough of South B street is enjoying a short vacation.

Motorists on the New road often stop to admire the large flock of growing White Leghorns owned by Joseph Desmarais, who makes country raising a business. Mr. Desmarais has hundreds of these birds, all sizes, and sure to catch the eye of any chicken crank.

Dr. George Thompson of Harry E. Prentice and George H. Young enjoyed a long motor trip Thursday.

A gymnasium class has been organized at the Taftville Men's club.

Miss Rose Jew has taken a house on South B street.

A. Frank of Providence, R. I., spent Thursday with friends in the village.

Mrs. Alfred Linderson has been confined to her home on North Third avenue by illness.

Every day brings a number of requests from members in all parts of New England for judges for the tenth annual reunion of the Pioneer Boys of Taftville at Rocky Point, R. I., as Aug. 13th.

Mrs. Joseph Lucier and daughter, Miss Blanche Lucier, of North A street, Mrs. Adolphus Benoit and Miss Gladue of Hunter's avenue and Mrs. Joseph Pearson of Merchants' avenue spent the week-end at the Williams cottage on Fishers Island.

A cruel joke on a local young man was reported around town Thursday. This young man has a lady friend in Baltic and during the day he had been in telephone conversation with her and made an appointment with her to call on some friends in Norwich. She would leave Baltic on the car that reached Taftville at 2:15, and he would take the car at the Taftville postoffice. When he boarded the car the young lady was nowhere to be seen, and the young man was cursing softly when he remembered that Baltic was on standard time, and the car he should have taken in Taftville was the 5:15. He hurried out his mistake in time to get off at Norwich avenue and walked sadly back to the postoffice to wait another hour.

Mrs. Joseph Lucier of North A street and son Henry and Miss Victoria Gladue of Hunter's avenue have returned from spending several days at Block Island, R. I.

Miss Loretta Vincent, who has been spending several days in the village, has left town.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent, who have been spending several days in the village, has left town.

CHIEF OCCUM VISITS

Whether Lemuel Occum Fielding realized it or not he camped Saturday and Sunday on the border line of Connecticut and Rhode Island where his tribe met the Narragansetts and possibly raised the warwhoop in the very same spot in which he gave his sons for the boys, Chief Occum looks the Indian he is, and arrayed in khaki scout hat and head work gave a fine touch to the countenance, where Big Chief Benton and his braves greeted him with an Indian song, the chorus of which is "Um-pah, um-pah."

Chief Fielding or "Occum" as he is entitled to be called is a near relative of the great sachem Uncas, who figures in Cooper's "Last of the Mohicans" as a literary character, and in history as a disturber of the peace of mind of the Narragansetts, a friend of the English settlers and in the later years of his life an autocratic ruler of his tribe. He is buried in the Royal Burying Ground on Sachem street, and a large granite monument marks his grave. His relation of the present generation has more of the traits of the Christian gentleman.

Swamp Occum was at one time pastor of the Mohegan church, near Norwich, founder of Dartmouth college and a man who accomplished great things under extreme conditions. Dartmouth college was originally started in Connecticut for the education of the Indian youth, but has become one of America's excellent small colleges. Chief Fielding, Daniel Webster and his founder might feel well reared if no other great men had graduated therefrom.

Camp Tippecanoe is finishing its fourth week and has had a successful camping season. The verdict of its many visitors is flattering.

Scout Executive Benton has been in charge during the whole time, assisting him were the following staff: Victor Davis, two weeks; Frederick Benton, Jr., two weeks; Lawrence Brown, two weeks; William Latham, one week; Lucius Davis, one week, and Thomas Baldwin, radio operator, four weeks.

Chief Jones has been in charge of the kitchen during the month. Troop No. 2 of Plainfield, 28 scouts and officials, also of the Norwich council, camped for a week in Rhode Island, at Camp Tippecanoe Tuesday and played baseball with the Norwich Scouts. The scouts stood at the place of the game—Plainfield 3, Norwich 2. Troop Committee.

Will Supply Pulpit
Rev. R. D. Trick of this city will supply at the Huntington Street Baptist church, New London, August 27.

THE MODERN MOTHER
Faces problems far beyond those of her forbears. She herself must be a much more competent person, combining in one individual the duties of nurse, cook, teacher and moral instructor. It is no wonder that many conscientious women break under the strain, and that others drag out a miserable existence, always tired and yet unable to take a day's vacation. Such women will find themselves benefited and their burdens made easier by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which was made for suffering women, and does not fail to relieve them.

LAKE URGES EMPLOYERS
TO PAY GUARDSMEN
In reply to a communication from President E. Kent Hubbard of the Manufacturers' Association of Connecticut, Governor Lake has written that he is strongly in favor of a general adoption by all employers of the State of a policy which would insure full pay for members of their forces who are called away to camp during the summer as members of the Connecticut National Guard. "I cannot too greatly emphasize my opinion in this matter," the governor said. The system proposed is that employers pay to the guardsmen the difference between the pay they receive from the government for two weeks and the amount of their regular salaries.

COMMISSIONER DISALLOWS
CLAIM FOR COMPENSATION
In a decision and finding filed Thursday in the office of the superior court in this city Dr. James J. Donohue, compensation commissioner for this district disallows the compensation claim of William A. White of No. 45 Lewis street, New London against the street department of the city of New London.

To Elect Delegates
Fletcher Post, No. 4, American Legion, is making plans for the annual state convention to be held next month. Delegates to the convention will be elected at the post meeting this week.
